

Here be the words of a simple sailor, cast upon this island to these many years. This be what I learned and what I found and what I learned that's better left alone. May this knowledge serve whoever finds it. But beware - there be darker places here than deep within the darkest caves. And glittering treasures that hide things darker still.

• THE LANDING

Many a pirate's boot has trod upon this slip of land.

And many's the adventure begun here. Keep your wits about you in your travels on the island, for there's treasure and danger here in equal measure.

Marks the spot you seek. Good luck, matey!

LAFITTE'S TAVERN - PIRATE POINT •

Here be a safe harbor from all manner of storms. A wild and boisterous place, no doubt, but a place to learn the ways of the sea and the arts of the master sailors.

• W. TURNER BLACKSMITH

The tools of me trade are forged in iron with fire and smoke. Give me a length of steel in one hand and a fair wind to guide me. Aye, there's nothing better - and nothing more a pirate needs.

DEAD MAN'S GROTTO •

Tread carefully these dark and winding caves. Though none will argue there be treasure here in great abundance, ghostly apparitions do haunt these corridors of stone. And every jewel is guarded well by forces none may know.

• SMUGGLER'S COVE

Here be the site of many a dark deed by moonlight. And in these waters, who can tell how much plundered coin lies below in the hold of scuttled ships?

And who can tell what forces guard these treasures still?

CASTLE ROCK •

The treacherous shoals what surround the island have claimed many a fair vessel and her crew. Here lie broken beams and planks, worn and weathered, to serve as memorial, shelter, and lookout perch alike. While below, 'tis said, there lies a king's ransom, hid in some dark passageway, too narrow for most to navigate.

• PIRATE'S DEN - SHIPWRECK

No fearsome storm did leave this shipwreck high upon the rocks at Pirate's Den, they say. 'Twas something monstrous that stirred the sea that day and tore this mighty ship in twain.

THE CAPTAIN'S TREASURE •

Somewhere beyond Smuggler's Cove and Castle Rock, a fabulous treasure lies. Steady as you go, mates - for it be guarded by the fiercest of pirates. Gather your knowledge of the island well, for all who happen upon this treasure shall be asked to account for themselves. Them what pleases the guards, they say, may be allowed to join the pirate brotherhood and take the solemn oath.

Pirate's Lair on Tom Sawyer Island

"I bet there's been pirates on this island before, boys. We'll explore it again. They've hid treasures here somewhere. How'd you feel to light on a rotten chest full of gold and silver -- hey?" - Tom Sawyer

"The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" by Mark Twain

Pirates All

Raise the Jolly Roger high and heed the battle call
The pirate code's
our only law,
for now
we're pirates all!

A draft of rum to quench our thirst,
a raucous pirate song
Among this wicked, pirate crew, tis right where we belong!

The sea is calm and
no winds blow,
but terror
chills their bones
For none can save their vessel from the wrath of Davy Jones.

When I was young
I wished that I could be a pirate bold
Who never washed nor went to school nor did what I was told!

So, raise the Jolly Roger high
and heed the battle call
Come raise your hand and take the oath, for now we're pirates all!
